STEAKHOUSE

THE ULTIMATE STEAKHOUSE EXPERIENCE

Established in 2025, AGED. Steakhouse combines the sophistication of a premium steakhouse with a contemporary edge. It has quickly positioned itself as Sydney's leading premium halal steakhouse, offering a traditional dining experience with a modern twist. With a focus on quality, authenticity, and innovation, AGED. delivers one of the city's most memorable steakhouse experiences.

BAKE'D

A FRENCH-INSPIRED CAFE IN THE HEART OF WESTERN SYDNEY

Opening in 2025, Bake'd has quickly established itself as one of Sydney's most sought-after café destinations, renowned for its indulgent breakfast, brunch, and dessert offerings. Delivering a refined yet welcoming dining experience, Bake'd brings together quality, creativity, and consistency in every detail. The menu features a wide selection of freshly baked pastries, signature cake slabs, and its highly celebrated signature pancake range, which has become a standout favourite among guests.

EMPOWERING INDIVIDUALS TO PURSUE THEIR CULINARY DREAMS

The Culinary School launched its certified Employment Pathways Program in June 2025, endorsed by the Education Minister. This program creates inclusive and supportive training and employment opportunities for both children and adults, empowering individuals of all abilities to pursue their culinary dreams. Early enrolments and partnerships have already demonstrated strong community impact, setting the foundation for long-term growth.

Shanglish
TRADITIONAL LEBANESE CUISINE

THE TRADITIONAL STREET FOODS OF LEBANON BUT WITH A MODERN TWIST

Born in Bankstown, Shanglish is a homage to the traditional street foods of Lebanon — from the humble kaak karts of Tripoli to the classic fatteh bowls of Beirut. In 2026, Shanglish will be expanding to Melbourne with the opening of its first interstate store in Broadmeadows. A celebration of vibrant Lebanese street food culture but now with a modern twist, Shanglish is now enjoyed across two cities with further growth to come.
